

KS5 ENGLISH LITERATURE CURRICULUM MAP

ASHLAWN
SCHOOL

FURTHER STUDY

University study for
English Literature

CAREER PATHS

Researcher, Education and Training, Journalism,
Marketing, Publishing

SKILLS

Critical analysis, interpretation, evaluation

Assessment: Analysis of a named poem and comparison to an unseen poem

Assessment: Choice of questions analysing theme / character / structure with consideration of contextual factors

Revision and examination past paper practice

Post-2000s Poetry

- Analysis of poetic techniques and the poetic form
- Consideration of writer's methods and the effect on the reader
- Honing of essay writing skills

A Streetcar Named Desire

- Analysis of literary techniques, character, structure and themes
- Consideration of how a range of contextual factors could impact writer's choices
- Honing of essay writing skills

Assessment: Comparison between The Handmaid's Tale and Frankenstein on a given theme, with consideration of contextual factors

Assessment: Independent project, comparing two texts of choice, with relation to critical material and consideration of contextual factors

YEAR 13

Frankenstein

- Analysis of literary techniques, character, structure and themes
- Consideration of how a range of contextual factors could impact a writer's choices
- Development of essay writing skills
- Synthesis of links to Frankenstein

NEA Coursework

- Analysis and comparison of two literary texts of students choice
- Research of relevant contextual factors
- Research of critical material
- Application of other viewpoints and perspectives
- Development of longer pieces of writing
- Understanding of referencing conventions

Othello

- Analysis of literary techniques, character, structure, and themes
- Consideration of how contextual factors could impact a writer's choices
- Application of critical material

Romantic Poetry

- Analysis of literary techniques, structure, poetic form, and themes
- Understanding of the Romantic movement and its influence on literature
- Synthesis of links to other poems in the collection

Assessment: Analysis of theme / character / structure, with relation to critical material and consideration of contextual factors

Assessment: Analysis of a named poem and a comparison to another poem in the collection

The Handmaid's Tale

- Analysis of literary techniques, character, structure and themes
- Consideration of how a range of contextual factors could impact a writer's choices
- Development of essay writing skills
- Synthesis of links to Frankenstein

Post-2000s Poetry

- Analysis of poetic techniques and the poetic form
- Consideration of writer's methods and the effect on the reader
- Development of essay writing skills

A Streetcar Named Desire

- Analysis of literary techniques, character, structure and themes
- Consideration of how a range of contextual factors could impact writer's choices
- Development of essay writing skills

YEAR 12

Assessment: Comparison between The Handmaid's Tale and Frankenstein on a given theme, with consideration of contextual factors

Assessment: Analysis of a named poem and comparison to an unseen poem

Assessment: Choice of questions analysing theme / character / structure with consideration of contextual factors

ENGLISH SKILL

Critical essay writing

ENGLISH SKILL

Read and comprehend for meanings/viewpoints

ENGLISH SKILL

Evaluate the influence of context

ENGLISH SKILL

Explanation, analysis & interpretation of texts