Transition Activities

Welcome to your transition activity booklet. Inside this booklet you will find a range of non-subject specific transition activities to help you feel more prepared to start your secondary school journey with us at Ashlawn.

You should complete these activities and bring this booklet with you on your first day to show your form tutor. You can complete the activities on your own or you can ask your parents to help you.

We are really excited to meet you and we hope that you are really looking forward to starting an incredibly exciting part of your life with us.

Scenario Four

Imagine you are on your way to the canteen for the first time and you are about to have school dinners for the first time. You are not sure what to do.

- How might you feel?
- Who could you ask for help?

Scenario Five

Imagine you have forgotten your PE Kit.

- How might you feel?
- What could you do?
- Who could you ask for help?
- What might help you remember it next time?

Scenario Six

Imagine you have forgotten your ingredients for a food technology lesson.

- How might you feel?
- What could you do?
- Who could you ask for help?
- What might help you remember it next time?

Scenario Seven

Imagine that you have tried really hard to find your lesson but you are lost and can't read your map very well as it is confusing.

- How might you feel?
- What could you do?
- Who could you ask for help?
- What might help you remember different areas of the school?

Scenario Eight

Imagine someone in your class had been unkind to you.

- How might you feel?
- How could you deal with this situation?
- Who could you ask for help?

My Time Capsule

A time capsule is like a frozen snapshot of time. This time capsule will be opened in five years when you have completed your secondary school GCSE examinations. You will be 16 years old and will be able to look back on your 11-year-old self - at the start of your secondary school journey! You will be able to look back and see how your life and the world has changed since then.
